Application for Observer Status

Observer status is available to governmental or inter-governmental agencies where they cannot become a member of the RWG. There is no charge. To apply for this status please complete the registration form below and send back to info@railworkinggroup.org or Rail Working Group, c/o Howard Rosen Solicitors, Baarerstrasse 98, P.O. Box 7262, 6302 Zug, Switzerland. Your application will then be processed and, subject to approval of the application, you will receive a letter of confirmation and listed on the RWG website as an official observer.

Please complete all details on the form.

We hereby apply for Observer Status to the Rail Working Group (the "Association") and agree to be bound by the Articles of Association and regulations adopted by the Association (available on demand), as amended from time to time. We specifically agree to adhere to the objectives and principles of the Association, that any personal data provided to the Association may be processed in accordance with any applicable data protection legislation and undertake to keep confidential personal data and other data provided to us in the closed section of the Association's website or otherwise designated as confidential. We further note that there may be meetings of the members of the Association where it will not be appropriate to have observers present.
